The Governor's land buy-back scheme has failed in Andhra SOMETHING WITH HIS OWN NAME IN IT After much delay, 'the' Gov- ernor, Sir Francis Benedict, ! has finally signed the bill for the proposed Government Land Buy-Back scheme. This was passed in the Assembly this week. The Gov- ernor's approval was essen- tially a formality because it has the majority support in both houses of the legislature. One i percent- ble difference in this case is not important. He has the final say in this case. This step will bring a permanent solution to the land problem in the State. It will also give a final death blow to the activists who are man- datory to get this scheme going and who have been dragging their feet. The plan will provide the pro- -hibitions on the sale of State land that was al- ready there and would have been there, if it had not been for this Government Land Buy-Back Scheme. There is no guarantee of the basic concerns about land buying and selling in Andhra Pradesh. As is always the case with a Gov- ernor's order, it could be flouted by any of the four main parties in the Assembly by simply not obeying it.
